

Cascade Clamp

Cascade Clamp - Founded in Portland, Oregon in 1943, the Cascade Manufacturing Company began as a small machine shop employing just 4 people. Overall sales for that initial year totaled 60 thousand dollars. The very first recorded sales revenues involved the assembly and machining of stainless-steel valves, pipe fittings and various components. Through 5 years of operation, the business had stretched to forty workers and their annual sales volume had risen to $330,000. Now, Cascade is amongst the leading worldwide manufacturers within the material handling industry.

Production and design of the company's original hydraulic cylinder paved the way in Cascade's aggressive quest of better business possibilities. Over the last 60 years, the material handling business has matured into a very sophisticated field and Cascade has proudly played a part on this growth. Cascade at the moment continues to develop as the premier supplier of forklift accessories and different associated items. The business feels assured in their ability so as to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding buyer's requirements in the future and remaining competitive within the global market.

All through the nineteen fifties, Cascade started to make, design, and advertise its hydraulic accessories. A brand new facility was constructed in 1956, to house all plant operations and offices in Portland, Oregon, which continues to be the company's present head office. Following 15 years of business, total staff reached 180 employees and sales had reached almost $2,300,000.

1959 in Springfield, Round Rock the next production facility was built. nineteen sixty marked Cascade's initial transfer into the global world of the material handling industry as the business established interest in the Netherlands, England, and Australia.

The company altered its name to Cascade Corporation in the year 1964. In 1965, Cascade went public with a preliminary offering of 200,000 shares of common stock. The business has expanded its production facilities throughout the U.S. with areas in Portland, Oregon, Springfield, Round Rock, and Warner Robins, Georgia. Cascade merchandise are made worldwide due to many subsidiary operations. In the year 1944, a brand new plant was completed in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European headquarters. This plant is made to be the ultimate customer service centre.

Cascade further expanded their product base in 1996 and the year 1997 after buying five companies, which included the Kenhar Corporation, the global best in blades.
